

Simon Abram

Simon comes from a family with 4 fencing masters. He has been fencing since he was 7 years old and started to coach at 14. He got his first coaching degree when he was 16. In 2006, at 21, he became the youngest fencing master in France. From 2005 to 2008, he coached in Aix-en-Provence, France and in 2009 he joined the NWFC coaching staff.

When he was 17, Simon joined the National Training Center of Aix en Provence. He represented France at several World Cups for 3 years. Lionel Plumenail was his fencing master. In 2005, he joined Erwann Lepechoux and Marcel Marcilloux in Aix-en-Provence's Division 1 Foil Team.

In 2009, he joined the NWFC's Division 1 Foil Team and won the US National Team Championship. In 2011, he joined the NWFC's Senior Epee Team and won US National Team Championship.

When not fencing, he likes horse-back riding and ice skating. He is also an avid Halo player and a very dedicated Star Wars fan.
